

Development of Green Maritime Fuel Storage Facilities in Tsing Yi South

Application Form for Requesting EOI Invitation Document

(Please email the completed Application Form to greenmaritimefuel@tlb.gov.hk)

Points to note:

1. The target parties of this EOI exercise include relevant organisations of the industry such as developers, contractors, operators, and consultants etc. If necessary, the Transport and Logistics Bureau (TLB) may require a company which requests for the EOI document (a requesting company) to provide supplementary information on their scope of business.
2. A requesting company which would like to submit an application must complete all fields marked with an asterisk (*). If a requesting company does not provide sufficient information, the TLB may not be able to process the application. All information collected will only be used for handling an application for the EOI document.
3. If you do not receive an acknowledgement or follow-up email within three working days after submitting an application, please contact the TLB by email at greenmaritimefuel@tlb.gov.hk.
4. An EOI document will be sent to the email address provided. Please make sure all information so provided is accurate and complete.
5. The requesting companies shall not disclose the EOI document or any information (including any drawings, specifications, documents, design, materials) provided by the Government to the requesting companies for the purpose of this EOI exercise, to any person other than Authorised Persons. Any disclosure to any Authorised Persons shall be in strict confidence and shall be on a “need to know” basis and extend only so far as may be necessary for the purposes of preparing and making submissions for the relevant EOI exercise. For the purpose of this note, an Authorised Person means any of the following: (i) employees, agents, associates, consultants, and any other persons engaged by a requesting company in connection with this EOI exercise; (ii) potential partners (e.g. joint venture, engagement of specialist(s)/subcontractors) of a requesting company for the project; and (iii) employees, agents, associates, consultants, and any other persons engaged in connection with this EOI exercise of the potential partners as set out in item (ii).

6. The Government reserves the right to make any amendment to the EOI document without prior consultation or notice. Any amendments made after the issuance of this EOI invitation document will be communicated to all parties which have requested in writing and obtained the EOI document from the TLB during the EOI period.
7. Personal data provided in the application form will be used for handling the request for the EOI document or notifying the relevant requesting company on supplementary information or amendment concerning this EOI invitation, if any. It may be disclosed to relevant bureaux/departments and their consultants for the aforesaid purpose. A requesting company has rights of access and correction with respect to the personal data provided in this application form. Such request may be made in writing to the TLB by email at greenmaritimefuel@tlb.gov.hk.
