

STH visits Europe

The Secretary for Transport and Housing, Ms Eva Cheng, left Hong Kong today (August 31) for a three-day duty trip to two major European cities, London and Brussels.

Ms Cheng will first visit London where she will meet the British Secretary of State for Transport and Department for Transport officials to exchange views on high speed rail development.

She will also visit a number of high speed rail stations in both cities.

During her stay in London, Ms Cheng will visit different types of retirement housing facilities for senior citizens.
